Experience

- What level of expertise do you bring with the resources and skills listed? If you are an medical doctor you are an expert. If you are a home owner, that trims trees in the yard, you are a beginner. Over selling your skills may result in lost time time and reduced efficiency.

Skills

- Your skills based on training and years of experience. Consider the tasks you may receive when indicating your skills.

Departure Lead Time

- How quickly can you be ready to deploy to a natural disaster and be gone for a 2 to 7 days? Being self sufficient is important to avoid limited resources in a disaster area.

Resources

- List the machinery, tools, boats, trucks and vehicles you will take with you on a deployment.
